The orders for war supplies are increasing. This does not look like peace.

If he isn't careful, former President Taft will soon qualify for critic emeritus of the American people.

Just to vary the peace talk, Germany rewards Belgium of that $1, 000,000 a month to be paid regular.

The telegraph peace campaign is a very laudable move from the viewpoint of the telegraph companies.

The United States rates for submarine war have been forwarded to Australia. Dr. Bonsu may interpret them.

Henry Ford's idea of bringing about peace by wireless flashes from the mid-Atlantic has all the charm of novelty and incredibility.

And then there are some vicious-minded individuals who beat the town by knocking those who seem to help the town by deriding knockers.

The monthly sales movement inaugurated by the chamber of commerce is a wholesome idea. It will at once help the business man and the farmer.

The good and great sounding wings of Logan events are to cover a disredly good meeting from papers over the state. That one way to keep Logan in the spotlight.

A bunch of partisans sees a great opportunity to climb to power by joining forces with the party of Europe. Since Ford
still embraces one hundred percent Americans, of course, "fourth state" government should be in order. Alfred E. Smith has "scratched both fives" to accept Mr. Ford's kind invitation.

New leaders of the allies have awakened to the truth that a great majority of the troops sent to help Serbia against Bulgaria in that other convention, the Balkans, are now surrounded like flies in a trap. If the flies had been surrounded in the desert before, they would have been devoured by the central powers. So it is in the

The Charlesworths could not be more popular than their hosting sentiments. It looks like the people to do. They still should cooperate with the centralists in doing what they can do. But they can't do more than they have done.

In order to do so,

they must be willing to do what they can do.

They are used to being first, and then they are used to being last.

A really good design, but one that fails to do its job in a million cases.
